00:27:44 Lana Fitt: Happy Birthday Robyn!

00:27:56 Robyn Peel: Thanks everyone! Nowhere I'd rather be than with you amazing data folks!

00:28:38 Alison MacDonald: Hi All, I'm joining from Central Kootenay, the traditional, unceded lands of the Sinixt, Ktunaxa, Syilx and Secwepemc peoples.

00:29:50 Caroline Miller, Policy Analyst, Kelowna Chamber: The BC Chamber's Collective Perspectives study will be published after today's last regional roadshow workshop - and I can tell you that labour force issues scored the highest on the list of what businesses are facing. All the results will be released next week.

00:30:24 laurel douglas: Thanks so much to today's speakers as well!!

00:34:08 Robyn Peel: If you weren't able to make the last two data sessions, the recording and slides are on the ETSI-BC website: <https://www.etsi-bc.ca/data-201-webinar-series2/>

00:39:09 Robyn Peel: If you have questions for the presenters, feel free to write them in the chat as we go and we'll get to them after each presentation and then at the end.

00:49:53 Theresa Wood: Congratulations! That is fantastic!

01:03:16 Robyn Peel: The Selkirk College projet: <https://selkirk.ca/about-selkirk/selkirk-innovates/social-innovation/bridging-rural-homelessness-and-well-being>

01:14:02 Robyn Peel: <https://www.ruraldevelopment.ca/publications/step-by-step-guide-to-estimating-homelessness>

01:23:21 Megan Foster: I am sorry I have to drop off the call. A big thank you to all three presenters; really great use of data in all three communities!

01:24:29 Robyn Peel: Love the level of detail of this data pull allows you to have.

01:25:42 Sasha Bogdanovic: some interesting visualizations from the same dataset, example for City of Cranbrook, <https://data.choosecranbrook.ca/business-economic-indicators>

01:27:49 Sasha Bogdanovic: and downloadable custom report at <https://data.choosecranbrook.ca/report-builder> by selecting "Business counts" in the Business dropdown

01:28:42 Meeri Durand: Lana - I am just curious as to how you might be able to supplement this data with informal employment that might exist in specific sectors and small businesses? Specifically in agriculture and proprietor owned and operated small businesses, who may draw on friends and family.

01:29:56 Sasha Bogdanovic: pretty good data available for smaller communities too, for example <https://data.investgrandforks.com/business-economic-indicators>

01:30:40 Sasha Bogdanovic: kudos to Lana for highlighting this great dataset 👍

01:35:20 Sasha Bogdanovic: BC Stats also has similar dataset. StatCan doesn't report businesses with below 30k annual revenue, while BC Stats includes them too, albeit it gets published with the delay

01:46:19 Ben Arnold: Thank you presenters for sharing and informing!

Such meaningful work. Great to learn about the power of housing societies, partnerships with research groups, and finding business insights from statistics, like gaps for investment. Nice nod to regional partnerships.

In case you're unaware, there is a BC cost-sharing program in the acquisition of ortho-imagery products: <https://www.icisociety.ca/about/>

01:49:33 Ben Arnold: Just curious if Columbia Basin Trust is a suitable funding source for housing projects/infrastructure for communities within their 'catchment area'?

01:49:55 Caroline Miller, Policy Analyst, Kelowna Chamber: thanks to all - I found Lana's presentation particularly useful; in terms of how to overlay the NAICS StatsCan info over our membership breakdown - appreciate the usefulness of the 'how-to's' in our strat planning. Leaving now to prep a noon event. Cheers,

01:50:57 Meeri Durand: Yes, CBT has a funding program specific to Housing Initiatives within its geographical area. Castlegar has partnered with them for several projects to date. They usually are not a sole partner, but can make contribution.

01:51:32 Sarah Breen: great presentations! Thanks for another amazing session.

01:51:57 Ben Arnold: Reacted to "Yes, CBT has a fundi..." with 👍

01:52:16 Susan Mordy: More imagery data for BC

01:52:35 Alison MacDonald: Thank you to all the presenters. So much good information in just an hour and a half!

01:52:37 Ben Arnold: Thanks for sharing Sasha! Those Cranbrook and Grand Forks visuals look slick. Nice work <https://cityviz.ca/>!

01:52:52 Paul Wiest: Great presentations!

01:52:53 Cat Moffat: Thank you everyone!
