

00:22:40 Rebecca Richards: Rebecca Richards from the LCIC in Trail!

00:23:07 Mark Trueman: Mark from TruGIS in Nelson

00:23:12 Sarah Breen: Sarah Breen with Selkirk College - nice to see everyone!

00:23:48 Christina Allen: Hello and good morning from Castlegar - it's grey here too. I'm with the Chamber of Commerce. Nice to see you all!

00:24:18 Colin Jaeck: Im Colin Jaeck, with TruGIS. We build data visualization models...Located in Trail.

00:25:43 Josh Joseph: Josh Joseph - planning with the District of Sparwood

00:57:35 Cat Moffat: Our DMO is looking at Zartico for data collection. I believe you can get specific event data. However, this platform is expensive but we are looking at alternative options to Telus.

01:02:28 Robyn Peel: For those interested in the Food Buyers Expo that Rebecca spoke about:
<https://basinfood.ca/>

01:15:56 Theresa Wood: Thanks for the great information! Apologies I have to head out.

01:20:11 Christina Allen: Wow! Amazing work Rebecca!

01:20:36 Cat Moffat: Very cool Rebecca!

01:24:48 Sasha Bogdanovic: great work everyone involved, amazing work!

01:24:56 Mike Stolte: So cool, Rebecca!

01:25:17 Mike Stolte: You make me proud to be a data nerd!

01:26:51 laurel douglas: Very impressive!

01:36:47 Ben Arnold: Hi Mike, just following up with some potential resources
<https://qgis.org/en/site/>
<https://www.rdck.ca/EN/main/services/mapping-gis.html>
<https://rdkb.com/Plan-Build/Planning/Maps>
<https://maps.gov.bc.ca/ess/hm/imap4m/>
<https://www.esri.com/en-us/arcgis/about-arcgis/overview>
<https://www.sgrc.selkirk.ca/>

01:37:21 Mike Stolte: Thanks Ben!

01:39:43 laurel douglas: Maybe also talk to the Small Scale Food Processor Association.
<https://ssfpa.net/>

01:49:30 Cat Moffat: Thank you everyone.

01:49:38 Christina Allen: Thank you very much for a great session!

01:49:56 Josh Joseph: Thanks so much , great presentations and info as usual!

01:50:06 Sasha Bogdanovic: great session and discussion, thanks everyone!